• All contributions received shall be deposited prior to the end of the 5th business day following receipt excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays
Online Reporting System

• Once pre-filed, a letter with instructions, password, pin numbers and identification number for the Online Filing System will be mailed.

• All campaign reports are filed electronically.

• All contributions and expenditures must be reported within the correct reporting period.

• Data may be entered into the website regularly, rather than just before deadline.

• The candidate or treasurer will “submit” the report.

• The deadline to submit a campaign report is before midnight on the due date.

• The report is made public immediately, eliminating the need for paper copies.

• If notified that an amended report is required, candidates have 7 days to submit report. Only item(s) that require correction need be placed on amended report. Specific instructions must be followed to ensure that the campaign totals are not affected.

• Election staff will be available to assist during regular business hours (Monday - Friday, 8:00 am - 4:30 pm).
Campaign Treasurer’s Reports

• File Campaign Reports monthly
• 60th day preceding the primary election
• Biweekly on each Friday through and including the 4th day immediately preceding the general election.
• Additional reports are due on the 25th and 11th days before the primary and general elections.

See report schedule for full list of dates.
